“ We just heard this news and wanted to express our sympathy. We definitely know how hard this is right now and will be lifting you up in prayer throughout the days and months ahead. Anthony was a great man of God and such an encouragement to Andy especially. The nuggets of Truth he shared and the faith he had were blessings to so many people and a great legacy. Its hard when we don't understand God's ways; but we know His Word stands true and we can trust His heart. Love to you all

“ Dear Imbrone Family, We are so sorry to hear of Tony. I was unaware that he was ill. Things travel slowly or not at all thru the grapevine at times. May God grant you all peace and wonderful memories of him at this time and in the years to come. Love, The Caldwell

“ Cindy, Paul, Sarah, Mary, Lauren and Caitlyn:

We truly believe, God saw him getting tired, and a cure was not to be.

So He put His arms around him, and whispered, "Come to Me."

The following quote could not express our feelings more,

"A great soul serves everyone all the time. A great soul never dies. It brings us together again and again." --- Maya Angelou

May peace be with you and your family at this time of grief.

“ My condolences. Anthony is with the Lord. I knew him as a man of God, on fire for the Lord, and a real soldier of Jesus. May we have comfort in Our First Brother, the Risen Christ.

He is Risen indeed.

AMEN

Your Brother in Christ,
