“ I have so many good memories of Aunt Betty from the summers I spent with her in Beecher....watching the children...swimming in Cedar Lake, IN...she was always someone I could talk to. Later in life she visited us in Horseshoe Bend, AR. We took her and Luke out to eat and she ordered catfish, but couldnâ€™t leave the restaurant without telling the cook â€œyou put too much breading on the fishâ€. She spoke her mind. I know my Mom appreciated her visit....we always had good laughs. I will miss her dearly...
