“ Charles you were one of my first ever childhood friends! When you grow up in the country, there aren't many kids running around to play with like the town kids had! We were neighbors and born a day apart! We rode our ponies together, fished in your pond and always sat by each other on the bus! 😊 very fond memories! This photo was from our 1984 30th class reunion, rest in peace my old friend!
Love, Sandy

“ I first met Charles (Chuck) when we were freshmen in high school together. I think we were the two shortest guys in the class, lol. Charles was always a well rounded, nice guy and I will always remember him with a baseball cap, some sort of flannel shirt, jeans and cowboy boots! After high school I moved to California but was fortunate enough to run into him at Amvet's about 7 years ago when I was back in town. We had a nice conversation and he was just as nice as always! Rest In Peace Chuck!! Will will be missed by many!

“ Charles, you're one of the best people I've ever known. You've loved your beautiful children & all of your family & friends fiercely & would give any friend or stranger the shirt off your back. I know you are in Paradise with Jesus, & He's convinced you to finally rest! We will always love & miss you! Love always, Karla
