

Cleo Louise Arvin

November 11, 1943 - October 13, 2021

Cleo Louise Arvin, 77, of Crete, went home to the Lord on Wednesday, October 13, 2021.

Cleo will be remembered for her beautiful smile, her kindness and all the love she had for her family and friends.

Cleo Louise was born in Rock Springs, Wyoming on November 11, 1943 to William and Ida LaBleu. She grew up on her parent's ranch and loved horses.

She married Larry Leger and had four children. She later married Anthony Arvin whom she was married to until his passing in March of 2005.

She is survived by her loving family, 2 daughters; Julie (Clay) Tanis of Crete, Kami (Jeff) Stooksbury of Dyer, a son; Todd (Donna) Leger of Midlothian, 6 grandchildren; Jacob (Kristen) Rodgers, Luke (Laina) Rodgers, Matthew (Sandra) Rodgers, Rachael Louise Rodgers, Todd Galen and Blake Leger, 6 great grandchildren, a brother; Ron LaBleu, 3 aunts; Cleo, Celia, Julia, and many cousins.

She is preceded in death by her parents, a sister; Katherine, 2 brothers; William and Christopher LaBleu, her husband; Anthony Arvin, a daughter; Traci Louise Leger.

A celebration of Cleo's life will be held on Thursday, October 21, 2021 at 3:30pm at Faith Church, 100 W. 181st Ave, Dyer, Indiana.

Livestream of celebration will be available at wearefaith.org/memorial. The live stream will be available at 3:20pm.

In lieu of flower donations to the Heart, Kidney or Diabetes Foundation would be appreciated.

“ My deepest condolences to you all.
I always loved your seeing mom at the kids weddings & when she came in town. She was such a classy lady and that smile of hers just lit up the room. She will truly be missed. Heaven has gained a beautiful angel

♥ Love you all,
