

Connie J Wolfe

November 3, 1948 - September 29, 2025

Connie Jo Wolfe, 76, passed away on September 29, 2025, in Beecher, Illinois. Born on November 3, 1948, in Kankakee, Illinois, Connie brought joy and laughter to those around her throughout her life.

Connie was known far and wide as “Aunt Connie,” a title she wore with pride and affection. To her nieces and nephews and even to those who weren’t related by blood—she was the fun aunt, the confidante, the one who could always be counted on for a good laugh or a spontaneous adventure. Whether it was chaperoning school field trips or transforming annual zoo visits into shopping excursions along Michigan Avenue as the kids grew older, Connie had a knack for turning everyday moments into cherished memories.

Her love of family traditions was perhaps most evident during the holiday season. Each year, she would take an entire week off work just to bake Christmas cookies hundreds of them—to share with everyone she knew. This beloved tradition has become a lasting legacy that continues to bring people together in her memory and will be passed down through generations.

Connie is lovingly remembered by her brothers Benny Wolfe (and his wife Donna) and Todd Wolfe; sister-in-law Cecile Wolfe; nieces Tricia Jarvis, Jennifer Wolfe, Laura Corbin, Valerie Suznjevic, and Rebecca Stroud; nephews Jeffrey Wolfe and Jason Wolfe; as well as many great-nieces and great-nephews who adored their Aunt Connie.

She was preceded in death by her father, Virgil “Bode” Wolfe; mother, Eva “Venita” Wolfe, and brothers Richard Wolfe and James Wolfe.

Connie Jo “Jo,” as she liked to remind everyone, “yes it’s a boy’s name”—will be deeply missed but never forgotten. Her spirit lives on in every shared secret, every burst of laughter at family gatherings, and every tray of Christmas cookies baked with love.

May her memory bring comfort to all who knew and loved her.
