“ Dave was a talented person and it's a shame to see this end at an early age . When I got into the old race car stuff Dave was the first one to answer questions and offer rides in the Millers that he was fielding . Off to the big track in the sky .

“ A GARDEN PATH was sent by Harold Peters (Vancouver, WA) and David Hedrick (Aloha, OR). We've lost a cherished friend who we will remember for his talented contributions to our car hobby as well as his terrific personality.

With deepest sympathy,

Harold Peters (Vancouver, WA) and David Hedrick (Aloha, OR)
