“ Dave was a service tech when I met him through a service call here at Craftsman Tool & Mold. He became more than that, not only for himself, but for me also over the years of our association. Dave became a friend & mentor over our shared time. I offer our condolences to the family on his passing, and will keep his memory fondly in my heart.

“Dave was a man we loved and admired for over 30 years. His tall physique and exuberant personality made him bigger than life. He lit up every room. He could fix anything. He could drive for miles, ride a motorcycle for days. He could plant all kinds of crops. He could mix with any kind of person. He exemplified the qualities of the proud Marine he was, facing life with confidence, intelligence, curiosity, and strong self-discipline. Semper-Fi means, "always faithful" and is the USMC motto. Dave wasn't afraid to be a man's man and still show his true-blue love for his soulmate, his "Joy". His God. His principles. His love for his countless friends, all over the States. His love for all plants, flowers, crops, animals, birds. Twisty metal brain teaser toys. Electronics. Cigars. Cars. The Roche sister's music. He encouraged us to grow tomatoes in our yard. This year, thanks to him, I was encouraged to plant cucumbers.

Dave's adoration for his Joy is a deep love story that will never die. When he would scoop her in his arms, and sweep her around in his great big bear hugs, it was Pure Love. What a delight to witness such longtime love between two soulmates. When Dave talked about Joyce's skills at work, and in the kitchen, and her intelligence, his eyes would shine and he would marvel at his "luck" in having her at his side for 33 years. It would be just like when he met her in 1986, all over again!

We will miss sending, "Uncle Dave" weird photographs of Floridian reptiles and of trying to think of fun holiday gifts he would like or get a kick out of.

The world has lost a bright light with Dave's passing.

Dave was a rare bird.

We all were blessed to hear his song.

Our deepest, heartfelt condolences to Joyce and all the family. We remain here to support you through your sudden profound loss of Your Dave.

*Love,
Mary Ann

“ Twenty-five years ago I embarked on a hiking trip that forever changed my life. Dave was part of that trip; he was part of the group who so kindly let me be a part of something special and after I pulled out syrup & pancakes,spam,steak etc they assigned me the nick-name "Chuckwagon".

He had a love of life that was shared thru wit, his sense of humor and around the campfire he brought stories to life for all of us. I loved hiking with him, he would point to a peak and ask who was going with him; never worried about pack weight, distance or altitude. The menu he and Steve concocted each year rivaled anything others could come up with leading to a friendly competition, their's was the standard to beat, after all who hikes 3miles with a 2k elevation gain, and pulls out lobster with butter and wine to compliment the meal; then says to the rest of us bring your plates over while it is hot.

There was an ease when talking with him around the campfire no matter the conversation. He was respectful of differing opinions but principled in his own.

Dave was never afraid to let you know he was a Marine. As a fellow vet we had many conversations; but for some reason I could not convince him the Corp worked for the Navy, after all we transported the Marines around the world - no, he would have no part of that, the Navy worked for the Corp.

Dave made the world a better place, I will dearly miss his larger than life presence, those special times when a chill was in the air, all of us sitting around the camp fire, while Dave sat in the latest camp chair, with a cigar in hand, wine from dinner and a laughter which would carry across the water and echo off peaks around us.

Our thoughts and prayers to all his friends and family!

“ Dave was one of those men that had the “it” factor when he was around people. His contagious laugh, incredible generosity, and his genuine caring nature made other people respect and enjoy Dave’s company wherever he was.

We have known Dave for over fifty years. We grew up in the same neighborhood, laughed outrageously at some of his antics, and immensely enjoyed being with Dave every second.

Dave was truly gifted in many aspects of life. He was highly intelligent, strong, determined and had this uncanny ability to make and keep friends. To say that Dave was a people person is an understatement and does not adequately describe his personality which was larger than life. He was loved by so many and had a positive impact on hundreds of people.

Our family will always love Dave. We will reminisce about all of the great get-togethers, how he made everyone feel special, and how he will continue to inspire us to become a better person.

*With love and prayers,

“ Dave Moore was my friend and Mentor.

I have come to know him over the last 15 years through the Anilam inner circle as it has come to be like a brotherhood to me.

“Doctor Dave” as I always answered when he would call would answer right back hey Super Don! So this is what I’m working on today now what’s your thoughts? I in turn would call on him for help on what ever issues I was working through talk hockey Smack or just shoot the bull! Together it seemed there was very little we couldn’t solve. “Or BS about!” He would always ask me about my Family or why he hadn’t heard from me lately? This meant a great deal to me, more than he could ever know.

The CNC world has lost a great tech and one funny guy who always thought of others first.

I will always think of him with a Smile on my face when I deal with projects we worked on together.

To his Family please know you are In My thoughts daily and while I can not be there in Person during these trying times my thoughts Prayers go with you during this your very difficult time.

God bless you all.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Dave's passing.....We worked in the same industry. Him selling machine tools and we are using them. He really knew his business and product, and we shared many conversations. I would always search him out at the Trade Shows at McCormick place. What a friendly and uplifting man. Glad to hear that he knew Jesus.

When all is said and done, that is what really counts! My deepest sympathy to all of Dave's Family and Friends.
