“ I am so very sorry for your loss of Dawn, even though I didn't get to know her personally. Losing a loved one in death can be very distressing for us to go through. But the good news is the Bible promises us that we will see our dear loved ones again. It's found at Acts 24:15 which says, "There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." What a wonderful time it will be to reunite with our loved ones again. “ Please accept my deepest condolences.

Losing a loved one is probably the biggest heartbreak of them all, but there is hope. Revelation 21:3-4 states. 3. With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: “Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his people. And God himself will be with them. 4. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” This is a promise from Jehovah God.

“ Dear Cox family:

Take comfort in knowing Dawn has the hope of living again in Paradise on earth when there will be no more crime, sickness or death- only peace, righteousness, and perfect health! Jehovah - “the God of all comfort” assures us of this. John 5:28, 29, Psalms 37:9-11 and 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. For more information on what God's Kingdom will do for mankind please visit www.jw.org.

“ I’m so sorry for your loss. Grief can be a difficult emotion to deal with. There are, however, 12 basic guidelines that can help you cope with grieving. They’re used by many grief counselors and they’re also biblical. You can download a free copy of the magazine titled “Help for those who Grieve” @ jw.org

“ Dear Torri & Jodi,
Duane and I are so sorry to hear about the loss of your Mom. She and your Dad were such a great part of our life when we were members of the Beecher Fire Dept. and glad to have called them friends. Your Mom will be missed by so many. Our prayers are with you and your family. Duane and Nancy Werkman
