“ Diane and Bob were some of the first people I met in town . I would stop at the coffee shop on my way to work and they would be in there every morning no matter what the weather. Good people. Peace to you and your family.

“ Diane will be, and has been, missed on Sunday mornings in the St. Luke UCC fellowship hall. Our morning conversations were always colorful. You always had my back, as I had yours.

Diane said what many of us think and would like to say... but wouldn't dare say it! She's been an inspiration. Her heart, her vocal ability, everything about her, a true inspiration.

Diane, you never came back to me on Sunday mornings, my 'coffee clutching (although you didn't drink it) friend'. You will continue to live in my heart and memories until the day I see you again.

Love you always.
