“ To Varnadore family and friends, I first met Elmer while he was golfing in the "Tin Cup" Senior Men's Golf League at Cardinal Creek Golf Course. He was golfing partner with John Gray, and the two of them were a formidable team and such fun to be around. Elmer seemed to enjoy the friendships he made in the League. Please accept my sincere condolences and know that we always enjoyed spending time with him and he will be missed. May he rest in peace.

“ I remember when I was little Uncle D would take me to the shed and help me with my golf game. He would give me the best pointers and help me feel more confident in golf. He was the best golf coach I could have.
