“ Marilyn and family, I am so sorry for your loss, Don was a great father-in-law, mentor and friend. He always was genuinely interested in what people had to say and what they did, even a pie in the sky kid like I was. I always knew I could count on him and was always amazed at his thoughtfulness and patience especially with the fact he was always working at Stauffer, the church, helping one of his kids(including me) or at home. He was a man that could be looked up to and admired for his principles, his family values and his godliness. He truly loved his family even those that pushed him to his limits at times and loved all of us unconditionally. Men like him do not come along very often and he was definitely one of a kind. I loved him and will miss him greatly as I know all of you will, again, so sorry for your loss.
