“ Erin and Aaron
Please accept our deepest condolences on your loss of your grandmother. I remember my grandma and actually was able to attend her ceremonies when I was still active duty. She went to a better place peacefully. But my real memories of her was her wonderful smelling pantry with homemade treats that us grandkids had full access to, and mom and dad had no say:) She ruled pantry with iron Polish/German fist...Kids always won:) You guys be strong, as you are, for the family and the anchors that you are. cheers/love Bubba “ Earl & Judy please accept our deepest condolence at your loss. You know I always thought of Dorthy as my second mom. Whenever I felt I couldn't discuss my trouble with my parents, I always went to your house and your mom would always take time to listen. Really fond memories.

After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air.

And so we will be with the Lord forever.
