“ You will be so very missed Aunt Dorothy...How I loved to spend time as a family with you and Uncle Jay and, of course, Ray and Sandy on those Sundays in Chicago when you would come over...oh, that was so long ago but remembered with love and smiles. We were so Blessed to have such a wonderful and caring family. The Christmas Eve parties at Grandma and Grandpa's...I will never forget the great fun we had!! You are with Uncle Jay now and Grandma and Grandpa and all your other friends and dear ones who have crossed over. May the Lord give you the peace, happiness and rest you so richly deserve. Love you always with fondest thoughts, niece Judi

“ Aunt Dorothy and Uncle Jay were very special people when I was growing up in Chicago. As the oldest cousin, I enjoyed seeing Ray and Sandy grow up. I was asked to be Sandy's Godmother at Grandma and Grandpa Soliday's Methodist Church on 95th Street. I was only 12 and was afraid I'd drop her, but was reassured by Aunt Dorothy and my mom that all would be well. Later there were wonderful Woodman of the World picnics to which we traveled in the back of Uncle Les' truck with Aunt Dorothy and Uncle Jay laughing at family antics. And, much later there were family reunions at Judi and Randy's farm in Indiana. What a wonderful family. When I think of Aunt Dorothy, I will remember those times fondly and with much love. Niece, Charlene
