“ Dear family of Dorothy,
I fondly remember seeing Dorothy and visiting with her when I was at Beecher Manor over the years. We would often speak for a few minutes following the Tuesday afternoon chapel services that she faithfully attended each week. Her quiet, soft-spoken manor was -- no doubt -- profound evidence to a warm, loving personality behind her quiet ways. May you find comfort at this time of your earthly loss AND dear Dorothy's eternal gain. St. Paul speaks for us all: "But we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, about those who are asleep, that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope." (1 Thess. 4:13, ESV) Dorothy, you, and all Christians have sure and certain hope in Jesus crucified and risen for His beloved ones -- of whom Dorothy most certainly IS!
