“ I just saw this. Elaine and I were related (2nd cousins) as our mothers were cousins. My maternal grandmother was Christine Tatge Saller.

“ I worked with Elaine a long, long time ago now as a dumb kid just out of undergraduate work and eager to build editorial skills. Such strong lessons from her I carry forward... starting with editorial integrity but so much also about personal calm & focus. Just lookit [diction error an intentional homage] how she stares down that camera. She always saw just what was in front of her. I wish I could embody those values just a little bit the way she did.
