“ Liz was a beautiful person inside and out. It was an honor to work with her. We laughed, sometimes danced in our office space. She loved when i played praise and worship music. She would yell from her office to turn it up. Liz was also an encourager, she always encouraged me, she told me i should write a book, or i should be a preacher because she liked the way i wrote my emails. She always told me i was creative and requested a sweatshirt with the word “Godifdence” because her confidence was in God. She spoke often about her family and church. She loved them dearly. She was truly a gem and will be greatly missed. Love you Liz, rest in heaven.

Thank you. She missed not being able to start school this year. I can see why. I would've wanted to be there too.

“ Elizabeth will be deeply missed. She brought an inquisitive spirit and a true passion for learning to everything she did. Her curiosity pushed those around her, and her dedication made a lasting impact on our team. Beyond her professional contributions, Elizabeth’s warmth, kindness, and genuine interest in others enriched the district and created connections that will not be forgotten. Rest in peace. I will miss working with you.
