“ I fondly remember Mrs. Gromala as my mom's best friend. She was always there for us after we lost our mother. She also was the one who shared stories about my mom that I never knew. I still remember when she was given the honor of the Polonia Woman of the Year and all four of my mom's children and their spouses attended to Celebrate this remarkable lady's many accomplishments. Thoughts and prayers with the entire family. She is now in heaven at Peace with her Matt and many friends and family. Bonnie Norush

“ Flossie, as I knew her was a very good friend of my mom's. They went to Bloom together. Flossie led the grand March at our wedding 47 years ago with my godmother. She always said she was my husband's "best man". She really had the BEST smile. May her soul and all the souls of the faithful departed REST IN PEACE!!! Mary Helen (Bijak) Blankenberger
