“ What to say about Frankie?....She was the most genuine person that I have ever met. I am honored to have met her and shared in her life for the last year or so. My life is a little bit better because of it. She was so cute when we were doing Into the woods. She played Cinderella's mother. She always tell the story of how she lost a bet and that is why she did the role. I am forever grateful that she did. It was the beginning of a wonderful friendship. I was so looking forward to her losing another bet and being in Beauty and the Beast.....I will forever cherish the time that I spent with you. Frankie, know that you have a special place in my heart. I'm sure you and my mom are having some wonderful conversations. Love you and miss you..Dee

“ Oh sweet Frankie. I had the fortune of meeting this sweet girl on the mission trip to TN several years ago. We bonded over our Greek heritage and spent an amazing time laughing and smiling and having fun and giving back. Her caring and sweet nature has been with me since last I saw her and that smile will always be with me. Please take our sorrow and know that she will always be with you.
