“ We met George for the first time about five years ago in the Grandstand at Balmoral Race Track. He enjoyed discussing sports with my husband and playing his 10 cent superfectas. He was quite a dynamic gentleman even in his later years. We enjoyed his company and will miss him. He left early many times to go to his daughter's for dinner. How lucky she was to have had him. May God bless you, George, and grant you eternal rest.
