“ My family and I would like to express our deepest sympathy over the loss of James.

May you find comfort in your loving memories and the warmth of family and friends. A scripture that has uplifted many who have experienced such a loss, is found at Revelation 21:4. There it describes a time when death and pain will be gone forever. We will even see our loved ones again who we have lost in death (John 5:28 & 29). It is our hope that these words bring you a measure of comfort during this difficult time as well. Once again, please accept our condolences as you deal with your loss.

“ Mark just informed me tonight of your Dad's passing, Kevin. I am so sorry. It has been a long time since I saw your Dad, but I remember his many stories... told in his quiet way, but with a twinkle in his eye. Know that others care, and be assured that focusing on the happy times somewhat helps. Lee

“ Dear Kevin,
I read about you Dads passing on facebook. While it is difficult to say good bye, be thankful that you were able to spend time with your dad during his final days on earth! Well done Kevin. Have no regrets, for your pop is on his way to the realms of glory. Heaven has gained another mighty warrior. And while I am sad you have to say good bye, I am glad your Dad has seen the face of God and is at home in the Immaculate Heart of Mary.
I know he was a good man for he raised a fine son, who has gone on to raise 4 beautiful children! How blessed and highly favored are you!
