“ My wife and I feel for your great loss and we are sorry we did not attend the service for Bucky. I was not feeling well enough to make it and I will miss James (Bucky) and have to live with the fact I could not make it to the service. Donna & I hope you find peace in your heart and strength to move on with life. He will live in your heart and memories forever. I will not forget him. our prays go to you. Love Ron & Donna
