

James W Segert

January 16, 1943 - January 20, 2013

James W. Segert, 70, died suddenly at his home in Grant Park, IL. James was born in Dyer, IN on January 16, 1943 to Walter and Caroline Segert nee Hartog. He was married to Joyce nee Reichert. His grandchildren were the love of his life and never missed any event. He loved work and his hobby of antique tractors. Surviving James are his wife Joyce, one son Jerry (Renae) of Grant Park; 2 daughters: Judi (Mike) Marcotte of Bourbonnais, Joni (Russell) Reynolds of Grant Park; one brother Wesley (Jeannette) of Grant Park; two sisters Janice (Terry) Buchmeier and Karen (David) Greenholt both of Grant Park; his mother Caroline of Grant Park and mother-in-law Marcella Reichert of Crown Point, IN; His dearest grandchildren Alexa, Gavin, Chance, Lilly, Troy, Kamden, Owen, Lydia, Tate, James and special little girl Camryn. Also surviving are his brother-in-law Bruce and sister-in-law Paulette. Preceding James in death are his father Walter, father-in-law Gilbert and brother-in-law Murl. Cremation rites have been accorded. Memorials may be given to Bev Roberts Cancer Society of Grant Park.

“ Our sincere sympathy to you and Jim,s family. The short time that I worked in the Grant Park area as a UPS driver I got to know Jim who was a person with a helping hand and a constant smile.

“ Segert Family,

Our deepest sympathy goes out to your family. I remember the first day I met Jim. He was the most kind hearted man I have ever met. I walked in to the first four plex he was building. I said to him is this place going to be for rent. He answered yes when do you need to move in. I answered yesterday. He laughed and said I'll do my best, and he did... We have been good friends ever since. Everytime I needed something all I needed to do is call Jim, and he would be there. He will be dearly missed by all.....

“ Our deepest sympathy on Jim's passing. For many years he helped us with our DYI's when we were in over our heads and made sense of our mayhem. His quit wit and dry humor made for great conversation and many belly laughs. We will miss him dearly. God Bless, Ron and Karen Banks
