“ I am so glad I met Jeri at the gym that day. Her first day in Team Training. She was fun, easy to talk to and creative. I remember how excited she was working on her daughters wedding event. I know she loved her family just by how often she would talk about them.

My deepest condolences to her family. Jeri, I will miss you and our lunchdates. RIP now my friend.

Sincerely, Marion Smith

“ I always connected to Jeri in so many ways. We both loved crafts, and I loved seeing what she was up to next.

She gave me her candle making supplies when she was ready to clean out her storage room.

We both loved to sew. I loved hearing about her projects. I bought her old embroidery machine when she upgraded to her new one. She was so creative in every way.

She was so good hearted, and loved all children. I always loved kids, and so I could relate to her wanting to help and love them all, and animals too.

My grandson is graduating in Ohio on Tuesday, the day before her service. I am driving there and staying overnight, and was visiting both my daughters in Ohio. So I do not think I will make it back for her service. If not, please know that my deepest condolences go out to Gary, and Meghan and Mandy, and all her beloved children that she loved, as well as her friends. My heart breaks for your loss.

Sincerely, Linda Chura

“ I know Jeri from growing up at Eagle Lake Her parents and mine were very good friends. She happens to be a very good friend of my sister Sue Stuebe. I know your hearts are breaking and I am so sorry for that. Take comfort knowing she is free of pain and with the Angels. May God help and comfort you as you travel these dark days. May your tears turn to smiles with your memories you hold in your heart...Sandy Selock Lorts

“ I have so many memories but the one I have always carried and always will is how big Aunt Jeri's heart was, how much she loved every one of her nieces and nephews.

“ Gary Roop and family, I am so sorry for your loss. Jeri is loving, kind, and one that enjoyed life to the fullest with family and friends, and all her animals. They were Momma’s babies. I have so many memories not sure I can pick just one. I have the one, it was Jeri, Mandy, and I shopping at Gordon foods in Matteson for an upcoming camping trip. On our way out of the store going through the vestibule to leave for whatever reason I turned right by the windows thinking I was by the exit waiting for the doors to open. They wouldn’t open so I began stomping my foot towards the window saying come on open. Until this day I can still hear Mandy and Jeri laughing so hard, Grace on the move was Sober by the way when she did this. Thank you for all the memories, friendship, and love Jeri. I Love you always and forever. Rest in Paradise 🌹
To the Roop Family, I cherish and love all of you. May God Grant you all the Peace that Surpasses all understanding. Love Always and Forever,
Big booty Judy ❤️🙏❤️
