“ Miss Krajewski was my high school English teacher at Morgan Park HS in the early 70's. She was always good to me and struck me as a really cool teacher. She drove a yellow Jaguar XKE and was a snappy dresser. With her long blonde hair, she seemed more like a student than a stuffy old teacher. I can count on one hand the teachers at Morgan Park that I remember, and she is certainly one of them. I lost track of her and wish that I had kept in touch. It looks like she lived a full life and gave way more than she ever expected to receive in return. I am sure that to all who knew her, that the world is a much duller place without her.
God bless you, Miss Krajewski and thanks for treating me so much better than I ever deserved.

“ Sorry this post is late. But she was teacher in the late 80 s. I'll remember her because I was a troubled teen and she befriended me the way teachers do. She was a nice lady and really knew her literature. One thing I still think about as funny: One day my friend, (who had Krajewski another period), and I decided to cut school and go to the mall. The next day Ms. Krajewski confronted me casually about ditching. Come to find out she called off sick that day and saw us at the mall herself. I still think about and laugh. Anyway, my condolences. “ Linda and family, I am so sorry to read of Joan's death. I got to know her when I volunteered with St.Paul the Apostle Church back before covid changed our world. You will all be in my thoughts and prayers.
