“ We have been neighbors for over 20 years and Joe was one of the kindest neighbors anyone could have. He was always interested in the entire family and remembered everyone by name. We will miss coming out and talking with him during his daily walks. He will be missed but never forgotten. Our deepest condolences to Phyllis and the rest of the family.

“ So sweet, kind and genuine. He always stopped to say hello when our walking routes passed and remembered me from the gym. A community treasure! 🧡

“ The entire Village of Crete is in mourning for “our” Joe. He never met a stranger and treated everyone he met with dignity, truly recognizing that he was in the presence of a Child of God. Whether “Homeless Kevin” or Mayor Einhorn, all he met were treated with deepest respect and caring. He knew our daily habits as we were all on his walking route. He entered our lives and “pulled up a chair” to chat. What a treasure! Oh how you will be missed, our Joe! The community will gather around your precious wife, Phyllis. We will take care of her as you took such great care of us. All our love... always! Richard & Kathy Carter Young

“ My hubby worked for Joe for decades. Joe was kind to everyone he met along the way. I really admired him as he treated all with respect and kindness. We have so many wonderful memories of him. We were thrilled when he married Phyllis, who happens to be a very dear family friend of my family for decades. They met by chance and fate tied all of us together. Phyllis, Emmett, and all of the rest of Joe’s beautiful family.. praying that God comfort you in your memories of him.

“ My husband and I first knew Joe as “that walking guy” in our neighborhood. A few years ago we started attending the Crete Methodist Church and got to know Joe and Phyllis. What a wonderful couple, so giving and kind!
Phyllis our hearts go out to you; Joe will be missed by all who were blessed to know him. Whether greeting us at church, passing on his walks or crossing paths at a favorite eatery--there was always a smile and robust conversation. Joe, we'll miss you.

“ Joe was such a Welcoming human. We would see him majority of the mornings walking up exchange while we were taking our son to school. Everytime we saw him and his wife out for a meal he always gave the best smiles and greetings. Me and my husband and son only known Joe & Phylis a few short years but he will forever be remembered as such a kind man. I will and continue to pray for his wife that he leaves behind. May God bless you Joe and Phylis .
