“ I remember when this happened, my heart just broken by such a senseless tragedy. I am States away and do not know the family personally but being a mom of 3 young boys myself this was felt very deep in my core. I'm not even sure what words to offer for condolences. The video was beautiful as is your family and this may mean nothing now but one day, somehow, you will all be together again. Find comfort in your memories and hope one day you can feel some peace. Sending all the love and light

“ Its been a few weeks since that awful day your family went to heaven. You don't even know me and this has torn my heart up so much that I waited so I could find the words in my heart to say. Your lives have been shattered beyond all measure and the quiet of an empty house in a moment becomes both deafening and confusing. God is a loving and merciful God. No I don't understand this senseless loss of your beautiful wife and children. I don't know the reason but I know that the father does. Its difficult but don't give up on him. He will restore you in some miraculous way that even we cannot imagine. My love and prayers go out to your family but especially to the amazing husband who loves this incredible woman and the daddy who's love for his children was unquestionable. Lean on the one who can help you as I have had to do. I was broken just the same as you but little by little he has restored me. Yes The loss is great and I still feel it deeply as will you for a very long time. Probably even forever, but the father who loved them first is the same father who loved you first. Trust him! He will bring you through! You and your family are loved and there is a prayer chain for you and your family that travels around the world. Im so deeply sorry from the bottom of my heart. Much love!

To dearest Tammy, Dennis and Ed, as well as the entire family. There are not words I can even come up with as I sit here with tears rolling down my face. I knew I recognized your daughter, but could not place her at first Tammy. That smiling face. Then I remembered their wedding and a couple of gatherings. Why did this happen? And Ed, I think you even worked on my garage roof in Momence when I lived there. In case you forgot, I was married to Steve Tongren. My heart is broken for you. I cannot conceive of your pain but certainly feel sick for all. I can only hope you find strength in the coming months, years. They will be with you, always. Love, Kim

“ Like many I have been touched by your family's sorrow and loss. May the God of all comfort lift and sustain you by His almighty hand. May His mercies flow new to you every morning. May you remain confident in this - that you will see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living. "Wait for the Lord, be strong and take heart and wait for the Lord." (Psalm 27:13 & 14)
 Joy through the Journey

*I will follow with joy through the journey,
 Though I know not wherever You go.
 You're my Rock, You're my Strength, You're my Saving Grace,
 Jesus, where You lead I'll go;
 Jesus, where You lead, I will follow.*

*Overcome by trouble and sorrow,
 I called upon the name of the Lord.
 In my greatest need, He was merciful to me,
 My soul has been restored;
 Yes, my soul has been restored.*

*In my anguish, I called upon the Lord,
 And He answered by setting me free.
 When the Lord is with me, what can man do to me?
 He conquers my enemies;
 He has conquered all my enemies.*

*When I'm pushed back and ready to fall,
 The Lord is my Strength and my Song;
 Shouts of joy and victory, will resound around me
 For Jesus is my All in All;
 He will ever be my All in All.*

*The Lord bids, "Be strong and courageous,"
 "Do not fear, or be terrified,"
 "When the path you cannot see, take My hand and follow Me,"
 "I will never leave your side."
 "I will never be far from your side;"*

*I will follow with joy through the journey,
 For my Savior leads the way.
 Wherever I might go, He has been there before,
 He is always, my Strength and Stay;
 Jesus, You are my Strength and my Stay.*

*Let the name of the Lord be praised,
 Both now and forevermore.
 From the rising of the sun, to the time that it sets,*

*I will greatly praise the Lord;
I will ever praise the name of the Lord.*

“ Dear Mr. Schmidt,

We are incredibly sorry for your tragic loss...your tragedy has penetrated the hearts on FB who have seen this post. There seems to be no way to comfort you with words that can alleviate the depth of loss you must feel today. Please know the hundreds, and likely thousands of us who have seen this post say to you we are praying for you and will seek the face of the Father for your sake. We pray He, in his great mercy, will deliver you through tthis. We pray Christ grant the comfort and peace you require daily. May the Lord bless you. Your family cannot be replaced ever, but the knowledge that they are in the Father's care can help to sustain you.

God's tender hand be upon you.

“ Dear Family, my heart breaks for the sadness and loss that you are all feeling now. Words cannot describe, the sorrow, anger and heartbreak that is felt by all. I pray that GOD holds you all close in his arms during this most difficult time. I know when I heard of the tragedy that befell your family my heart cried out to the Lord and he confirmed for me in the Brahms Lullaby, late at night, that GOD has held your family so tightly in his arms. My heart, my sorrow, my love is with you.

May you find the strength to heal this wound. Edward, you are very fortunate to have them as a family and even though they are not by your side, they continue to live in your heart. It's sad to hear about car accidents and lives being lost because of distracted/negligent drivers. I hope this story awakens many people. Thank you and God bless you all.

I made a mistake by posing where I live , when it should have been my name .
God bless .

My love and prayers to all of the family . I do not know the family , but this has touched my heart so much . I know that God wanted me to see this for a reason . I know the loss of a child , as I lost my youngest daughter on December 29th, 2011, she is forever 27 . Words cannot say how my heart aches for your family . I want you to know that grieve has no time limit . You can grieve the way you need to for yourself , not for how other's think you should . For friends of the family , as well as other family member's , I ask that you please do not say to this grieving family , I can only imagine how you must feel , for you cannot . I ask that in the following days, weeks and months to come , that you do not drift away from this family . They will need you now and in the month's to come . Call them, visit them , take a meal to them, offer to do errands for them. But most of all just be there for them . If only to let them cry , or to talk about their child, grandchildren . And please, say their name's , for as a grieving parent , we want you to remember them . To Lindsey's parents, know that my love and prayers are with you . To Lindsey's husband , I sent you my love and prayers . If you ever need to talk , please feel free to contact me . I am a member of a grief group ,( one no one's wants to be in) , but it is a wonderful and caring group of grieving parents , where you will find , love , comfort and support . As a young girl ,I lived in Crete , I passed the Lutheran Church each day as I went to school . Yes , God wanted me to see this for a reason . Why , I do not yet know , but God does . I cannot be with you in person, but know you are in my thoughts and prayers . My deepest sympathy to all of the family .

“ Our only hope is in Jesus. He died and rose again so that we could have the gift of eternal life. These precious souls are now in the presence of our Lord and Savior...Lindsey, sons, and the child Lindsey was carrying. Seek comfort in the Lord for your torn and aching souls.

All I can say is be assured you will all be together again that sweet day when we can all meet our Lord Jesus face to face. And until then let your hearts sing of the beautiful memories you were blessed to make with each of them. May God keep you wrapped in His comfort .

“ I really have no words... I didn't know the family personally but am heartbroken for their tragic loss. Please find comfort in the memories you have of this beautiful and loving mother and wife, and be reminded of the love. She was a mother in this life and now remains a mother in the next life to her precious babies. Praying for you all.

“ I am SO DEEPLY SORRY for your loss!!...I will not give any platitudes or explanations, As any effort to comfort at this time could be unintentionally painful to you and the family. Remember, as long as everyone who knows and loves them live, They all shall live, For they are part of all who know and love them. For they have touched SO Many Hearts.
My Emotions n Thoughts are with you and the Family. so deeply sorry you and all have to endure these great loss's. May it comfort you and All to know that myself and others care.and is praying for you.
My Deepest Heart felt condolences to you and all!
