“ Debbie, I was extremely sorry to hear of your loss today. I do have some experience with losses of my own. I want you to know that healing will happen with time please cherish the good and hold on to the best part of your memories. That will provide comfort when you need it most. Even though you don't know me very well I hope to be able to help in some small way. I can be a good listener.

“ *Debbie and Josie,
Jeff and I want to extend our condolences to you and your family.
We are so sorry for your loss. You are in our thoughts and prayers always. May God comfort you all in this difficult time. Debbie you have always been there for me through my health challenges and someone that no matter what always gave me encouraging advice.
I've learned through your dedication as a Jenny Craig Consultant to never give up on achieving my weight loss goals. Know that Jeff and I are here to reciprocate the continuous love and support you have given us.*

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss. You probably do not know me, but Florence Hurling was a long-time customer of my salon in Crete, and I believe that Mike's father would sometimes bring her into the salon. Also, my granddaughter is Madison Gemo, a friend of Josie's. Again, my most sincere sympathy to you and your family.

“ Debbie & Josie,

My heart aches for you in this tragic loss. Just a few weeks ago we were all having fun with the musical, Gypsy. Now, it feels like the days of laughter are over. And they will be for a while.

You will have a lot of grief and emotional ups and downs to go through. I want you to know that I am always there for you. As a pastor, I have had to spend time with families going through tough times like this. I don't claim to take away your pain and make everything like new. But I have a hand to hold, a heart to care, a tear to shed with your hurt, and an ear to listen.

Besides my constant thoughts and prayers for you, I am here if you need me.

Tom
