“ *Our loving God Jehovah has these thoughts
"For I well know what I am thinking toward you, declares Jehovah, thoughts of peace, and not of calamity, to give you a future and a hope" (Jeremiah 29:11)
So very sorry for your loss.*

“ *Dear Mr. Teske,
I am so sorry for your loss. How devastating to lose a child. I knew Mike when he was just a little boy, in fact he was probably my first friend. I remember freezing to death while waiting for the school bus together. Mike threw a wicked snowball. Thanks for building that shelter along with my dad. I loved to hang out with Mike and visit your horses, Mr. Gypsum and Brownie and if we weren't there, you could often find us way up in one of the Witzel's apple trees. We spent long summer days flat on our stomachs coloring on the front porch. Mike always chose the coolest Hot Wheels cars.
And we savored snow days off school watching Bozo's Circus and eating my mom's egg salad sandwiches (if Mike begged her enough). I hope he's having a blast now driving or riding something wild and fast or maybe just taking everything in from high up in an apple tree. My thoughts and prayers are with you.*

“ We are so sorry to hear of Mike's passing. We were friends at the old Sauk Trail house in the 60's and 70's. Mike loved to go for ice cream in the back of our truck with our kids. He loved coming over for egg salad sandwiches on days off from school. We wish to express our heartfelt sympathy for the passing of Mike. You will remain in our prayers, Roger.

Sincerely,
Jim and Joanne Schutz

“ Roger::: my heartfelt sympathy goes out to you, I remember when Mike was born
The Lord will give him a better place to be from now on. Please accept my heartfelt sympathy, its not fair for our children to go before us. I will keep you and Maggie in my prayers.

In his heavenly name Carol Schuetz
