

Myrna Mueller

May 17, 1942 - February 12, 2026

Myrna Lorna Mueller (Meyer), age 83, of Beecher, Illinois, passed away peacefully on February 12, 2026.

She was born on May 17, 1942, in Beecher, Illinois, the daughter of Herbert and Lorna Meyer, baptized on June 7, 1942, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Beecher, Illinois, and confirmed at Zion Lutheran Church Beecher, Illinois March 25, 1956, by Rev. Harold Wunderlich. She graduated Beecher High School on May 27, 1960, and married Delmer Mueller on June 3, 1961.

She is survived by her husband Delmer Mueller and sons, Jeffrey (Peggy) Mueller of Beecher, Illinois, Scott of Grant Park, Illinois, and Michael (Carlithe) Mueller of Frankfort, Illinois along with two grandchildren, Aaron and Nolan. Myrna was an active member of Peace Lutheran church in Beecher and volunteered with the food pantry. She enjoyed spending time with family and meeting friends at local restaurants for lunch and coffee. Her passion was collecting Longaberger baskets and doing various crafts, including pottery, crocheting, and knitting. She loved watching her two grandkids play the piano and making Thanksgiving-themed treats for them. You could also find her in front of the TV watching all the Chicago sports teams, especially the Bulls and Cubs. She was a receptionist for Old Town Dental in Crete for many years, and she also performed many property management duties. She also loved dogs.

Her memory verse is "Teach me to do thy will; Thou art my God; Thy Spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness." Ps. 143:10
