I can not express how fortunate I feel to have had such a loving grandma, known to not just our family but many families as, "Ma." Her loving spirit showed when she would tell us great stories of her interactions with the kids at school or on the bus; helping out at church with the coffee hour and making beer bread for St. Luke's Chili Supper; and by making Halloween costumes for her grandchildren. She was a woman of many talents, great faith and loved by those who knew her.

We love and miss you Ma, Tosh, Ava, and Ryan

“ She was such a great person. Never saw her having a bad day, always smiling. Best memories are of her working at the snack bar under the bleachers at the HS. When ever I asked for a chocolate milk she would always say "one brown cow coming up".
