“ Bruce, John and friends. I am sorry for your loss. Nothing can prepare us for grief we experience when we lose someone dear to our heart. Your tears don't go unnoticed by God. God has promise to wipe away our tears, as well as sickness, pain, and death in the future. (Revelation 21:3,4). For free encouraging scriptures please visit: jw.org. We all look forward to welcome our love ones back to the earth Psalms 37:29. Please accept my condolence at this difficult time.
