“ Russell had light in his eyes and a smile every time I saw him. He helped others tirelessly and gave so much of himself, helping people he knew & those he didn't. Russell changed my life for the better, he helped me more than words can say. I will miss him, but I will carry him with me always. Till we meet again my friend. Much Love, Elizabeth Ter Haar

“ Russell flew out to visit Brenda, the kids and I in Nevada. I picked him up at the airport during a crazy snow storm, and we headed directly up to ski at Heavenly Ski Resort in Lake Tahoe. It was an absolute blizzard. We skied in fresh untracked powder every run. I know it was one of the best days he ever had skiing. The mountains will miss him and so will I.

“ Russell became my friend about 3yrs ago. His smile, handshakes and hugs either reinforced a good day, or helped to pick me up from a tough one.

One word I would use to describe Russell is selfless. His brothers and sisters in the fellowship will miss him dearly.

To Russell's Family, he spoke about his love for you often and he shared many pictures.

Russell was a good man, trying to be better. Along the way he helped others to do just that.

God Bless You Russell & Family!
