“ I remember what a fun time it was as a child, when our family visited Uncle Bill and Aunt Susie's and got to play on the farm with our cousins. Uncle Bill let us jump into the pile of grain in the barn that was stored there, and he told us kids, who were from the suburbs, that if you want to get milk from the cows, you had to pump their tails. I remember that when Uncle Bill and Aunt Susie visited my folks, (Susie's sister and brother-in-law), Uncle Bill would help my dad deliver donated couches and other heavy furniture to needy people where we lived. He lived out his faith in Jesus in his everyday life. May the sure promises of God comfort all my dear cousins and their families. With love, Janet

“ On December 10th, 1977 Mr. Becker was out with his tractor and plow making sure the roads were plowed because of a snowstorm we had in Grant Park. Pastor and Mrs. Zickuhr lived across the road from Bill and Mrs. Zickuhr, was due to have twins any day. He made sure we were plowed out and my husband, did have to take me to Riverside on that Sunday and I delivered twin girls, Sara and Dawn. Thank you, Bill, for being such a great neighbor and friend. I am sure that you and John are talking about this in heaven.
