“ Tami and Family,

I, too, remember your mom as the sharpest dressed woman in town! She always was so stylish. I think sometimes Chris (Waterman) would borrow clothes from her! Your mom was always so young acting and I know you were such good pals! My sincere sympathy to your family.

I apologize for not attending her arrangements....I was on vacation.

“ Dear Terry, Tawny and Tammy!

Your mother meant the world to me. It was such a treasure to have known her. As you know, I stayed @ the Holdt residence for most of my high school days. She was always available to talk to and provide good advice. Her home was haven for me to study. The Waterman house rarely had moments of silence. Ha!

She was one of the most important influences in my life and for that I will forever be grateful.

So sorry for your loss - may your memories of her warm your heart and bring a smile to your face.

God Bless All of You!

“ You have my sympathy, your mother was a lovely lady, inside and out. I remember she always took pride in her appearance. She and my mother had always talked about Mom fixing her hair for her funeral. Sorry it didn't work out that way, but I am sure she looked beautiful. Dianne
